The World Economic Forum (WEF) have been implementing the global initiatives of the Club of Rome for decades now. Their goals have largely been kept un extraction of natural resources and a global green agenda. Humans were seen as the problem, a parasite on the planet. But now they have stopped pretending.

The following is credit to @JimFergusonUK. In the video (below) he shared on X you'll hear them saying the quiet part out loud.

> In their own words:"If a billion people stop eating meat…""We're developing the ability to track consumers' carbon footprint.""What are they eating? How are they traveling?""Meat and dairy producers should pay for the damage they cause.""Every cup of coffee you drink harms the planet.""Your future protein won't come from meat."
> This isn't "climate policy." It's a blueprint for monitoring, pricing, and punishing every part of your daily life — food, travel, purchases, movement, even what you drink in the morning.
> The WEF wants a world where your lifestyle is regulated like a bank account — and where dissent is impossible because everything is tracked, scored, and controlled. They call it "sustainability."
> But we all know what it really is: Compliance. Surveillance. Obedience.
> And the pushback starts now.

> When a senior Catholic Archbishop — a former Apostolic Nuncio to the United States — openly accuses global elites of infiltrating Western governments to impose Agenda 2030… the world should stop and listen.
> Viganò warns: “A dangerous subversive elite has infiltrated the highest levels of Western institutions to implement a criminal global plan."

He says those who expose this "global coup" are silenced through:CensorshipIntimidationPsychiatric abuseArrest

And he names a political prisoner the mainstream refuses to talk about: Rainer Füllmich — imprisoned for the crime of telling the truth.

Then Viganò goes further than almost any church figure in our lifetime: "It is not Füllmich who belongs in prison, but those who committed the greatest crime ever against humanity."

And he names them: Fauci, Gates, Schwab, Soros, von der Leyen, Bourla ...and their accomplices in public office.

This is unprecedented. A senior Archbishop accusing the globalist power structure of crimes against humanity — and calling the emerging system what it is: A totalitarian regime spreading across Europe, Canada, Australia and every nation controlled by the UN, NATO, WHO and WEF.

His call to the world is clear: "Raise your voice. Defend the persecuted. Free Rainer Füllmich."

History is accelerating. The Church is speaking. Whistleblowers are being jailed. And the globalists are losing their grip. The truth is breaking through.

@CarloMVigano

Of course the entire green agenda is a pretext for global domination — one world government — and it won't be pretty.

Fifty odd years ago at that Club of Rome meeting at Flinders University it seemed to be necessary that we stop global population growth and the concomitant depletion of global resources and the rise in global temperature else the world would be overrun with humans and the environment destroyed. However there was no mention of the necessary rise of the authoritarian state to implement the alleged draconian measures needed.

The end goal was always global tyranny and reaping the planet for the benefit of the few billionaire oligarchs. The green agenda, along with UN Agenda 2030, was the mechanism to achieve that goal.

We must resist this at all cost. Do not comply with their agenda!
